Welcome

I'm pleased to present the SIL Mutual Fund Personal Lump Sum Scheme annual report for the year ended 30 June 2021.

It's been an extraordinary year, with each of us impacted in some way by the effects of the global pandemic.

Economies were impacted to varying degrees as COVID-19 continued to spread around the world. This was driven largely by the different responses of countries to the health emergency and several variants of the coronavirus that proved to be more transmissible.

Global equity markets started the year close to all-time highs, having recovered sharply from the early 2020 sell-off.

A record-breaking rebound for growth assets

Despite some volatility, equity markets continued to rise as prospects of the global economy reopening, supported by significant fiscal spending and accommodative monetary policy saw most share markets trade to all-time highs. These gains continued into 2021, with news that several vaccines had been granted emergency approval to fight COVID-19.

The strong showing in equity markets meant those funds invested in growth assets posted impressive gains for the year. Meanwhile, it wasn't as favourable for fixed income investors as the upbeat sentiment around the economic reopening and rising inflation expectations saw government bond yields rise – a scenario where bond prices tend to decline.

Despite the strong performance of equity markets, the emergence of the Delta variant of COVID-19 (which has seen some countries experience second and third waves of the virus) means uncertainty remains high. It's a good reminder that ups and downs should always be expected as a part of investing.

In addition to strong performance, other developments this year include:

- Change of Chairman

During the year Chairman and Director Mark Cross resigned after approximately 10 years with the scheme. Dr Edward Schuck was appointed as Chairman on 1 April 2021.

- Award-winning performance

ANZ Investments received the 2020 Good Returns Fund Manager of the Year Award – Powered by Research IP*.

In the words of Research IP, this achievement "recognises ANZ Investments' long history of strong governance, industry best practice and performance over the 12-month judging period".

- A new way to invest

We've added the capability for you to make additional investments on your smartphone. If you're an ANZ banking customer, you can transfer money to your investment account via the ANZ goMoney app, wherever and whenever you like.

* See page 13 for award disclaimer, and see anz.co.nz/investmentawards for full awards and ratings history.

To ensure your financial plan is on track, I encourage you to contact your financial adviser to review your financial position.

It's important to discuss any changes in your financial situation. ANZ Investments will be happy to put you in touch with an adviser in your area if you need one.

Thank you for your continued support. We appreciate having you in the scheme and being able to help you achieve your retirement goals.

Dr Edward Schuck

Chairman,
Superannuation Investments Limited

"The strong showing in equity markets meant those funds invested in growth assets posted impressive gains for the year."
